OCTOBER HEADLINES

WORLD NEWS AGAIN

Perhaps not in a century has the world's interest been glued to one spot, one event, for a period of two months, as has been the case during September and October. It is, of course, the story of Stalingrad. At this writing (Oct.27) it seems that we are safe in recording Stalingrad as a distinctive, perhaps a decisive victory for the Russians. To be sure, the city now is of no very great importance from a military standpoint. Surely there is not much left in the city that could in the near future help either the Russians or the Germans to a great extent but Russia has won! Even if the Germans should take the city now, it is a Russian victory. This is clear when one thinks of the losses inflicted upon the Germans, the delay brought to the Germans' 1942 program, and to the loss of prestige suffered by the Germans. Neutrals in various parts of the world, enslaved peoples of the conquered countries of Europe, and all people opposing Germany have been fortified greatly to resist and to fight to the end.

The first result of the Stalingrad victory is our own release of mind so that we can now, once again, give attention to world news instead of Stalingrad news.

POLITICS IN AMERICA

During the last few days, we in America have taken a normal interest in politics. Interest centers in Mr. Dewey in New York state and in the possible loss to the Democrats of many seats in Congress. This loss will have a bearing on developments in Washington in Economics, in politics, and in the war effort. One even connects these matters with the election in 1944.

SERIOUS LOSSES

The name of Rickenbacker! America's heart sinks at the thought of his loss, along with his three brave companions. Nor do we forget the companions of Doolittle, now prisoners in Japan. Have our losses just begun?

ANOTHER PEARL HARBOR?

May it not be so! But that is what certain keen minds are saying about the campaign in the Solomons. Why has Halsey replaced Ghormley? Must our boys fight against poor leadership, as well as a brave foe? Only the future can untangle the situation in these islands. We want victory there, with as little loss as possible. Our bombers are doing good work. At this writing it is clear that a decisive battle is near. It may come any day. Can our boys hold?

WATCH AFRICA

Germany is shut in on the North, East and West. The battle is being fought in the South. Can Germany break through? She has failed in 1942 to break through Africa or Syria. The Russians are holding on the East. The British and Americans are now driving hard in Africa. If we can drive the Axis out of Africa we can attack Italy directly and the blockade of Germany is complete. That means defeat for the Axis. The uncertain quantity is the length of the war. So Watch Africa, also Dakar.

STORY-STICK PEOPLE

Capture Makes a Friend (Concluded)

Last Month: Capture, being chased by outlaws, had just reached the top of a canyon wall. Looking back he saw the outlaws climbing up after him so he cut the rope and they fell to the bottom of the canyon.

He then hung down a rope and climbed down to see what they looked like. They were all broken up except one, known as Jimmy, who only had one arm broken off. When Capture turned around he found a cave, and took Jimmy into it with him. They came upon some rocks behind which were two outlaws which started Shooting at them. Capture handed Jimmy a gun and told him to keep the outlaws' attention while he got behind them. Jimmy did as he was told. Capture crept around through the darkness and finally was able to capture the outlaws. He took the outlaws to jail, and then had Jimmy's arm fixed (Jimmy had turned on the lawmen's side). Capture had found a good friend in Jimmy, and they worked together as you will find in other stories.

AROUND THE BREAKFAST TABLE

Game "Description"

This thing has two arms, can't think, is soft, and is loved by everybody. You Don't know what it is? Maybe a fuller description will make it easier. It is soft, has two arms, four legs, and is loved by everybody. You still don't know what it is? It's an arm-chair.

Somebody makes statements like the above describing something without telling what it is. When a person guesses if he is right he gets one point. In the end, of course, the person with the most points wins.

"What! Is your name changed too?"

"And there was the Scotsman who bought only one spur. He figured that if one side of the horse went the other side was sure to follow!"

Teacher-Give me a sentence with an object.

Boy-Teacher, you are very beautiful.

Teacher-What is the object?

Boy-A good mark.

Sandy would not believe that the train fare was three-pence, so at last the annoyed conductor picked up Sandy's suitcase and tossed it off the train as they were crossing a bridge.
